William Wise’s playful poetry is perfectly matched by Lynn Munsinger’s humorous illustrations which highlight each creature’s distinct personality, from Gertie the good-egg penguin to Baloo the crocodile snake. Together Wise and Munsinger present young readers and listeners with this delightfully Zany Zoo, captured not in a cage but on the page!

The Runner 2002-08-20 Christopher Reich dazzled readers and defied expectations with his New York Times bestseller, Numbered Account, a breathtaking classic of modern suspense. Now Reich returns to the world of international thrillerwriting with a no-holds-barred power struggle against the backgrounds of post—World War II Germany. July 1945. U.S. attorney Devlin Judge has come to terms as part of an international tribunal to try war criminals. But Judge has his own personal agenda; to find Erik Singh’s brother, Syed, who was accused of war crimes. As Judge and his team work to lay the initial charges against Singh, a series of events occur that may be linked to the Holocaust, and all seem to point to a possible cover-up of crimes that occurred under the Nazis’ rule. Reich skillfully keeps us on the edge of our seats, and the Runner confirms all the great promise Reich showed in Numbered Account.
